Registration :

Free entrance, registration compulsory at info@ssphplus.ch until 20 August 2010

Content :

The H1N1 pandemic turned into a public health crisis, less because of the health consequences of the influenza, than because of the response provided by the public health agencies in charge. The aim of the workshop is to gather and to discuss some of the lessons learned from the H1N1 crisis, from the perspective of both the pandemic and the policy response.

Program :

16.00-16.15	Welcome and introduction	Fred Paccaud (SSPH+)
16.15-16.45	The invention of a pandemic	Ulrich Keil (University of Muenster)
16.45-17.15	Lessons learned for public health : evaluating responses in various countries	Eric Masserey (SSP-VD)
17.15-18.30	Round table	Ulrich Keil (University of Muenster), Eric Masserey (SSP-VD), Virginie Masserey (FOPH), Klaus Stöhr (Novartis), Anne Witschi (chief medical officer BS), Patrick Zuber (WHO) Moderation: Thomas Zeltner (Harvard University)
18.30	Reception offered by SSPH+
