

Workshop Swiss National Cohort (SNC) Results after the first 4 years

Thursday, July 1, 2010 | 13.30–17.30 h
Venue: UniS, Schanzeneckstrasse 1, Bern
(near train station)

Programme

Chair

Prof. Matthias Egger

Keynote speaker

Prof. Tim Lash (Aarhus): «Using population-wide health registries to improve the quality of non-randomized epidemiologic research»

Short presentations of SNC work

- Dr Adrian Spörri-Fahrni (Bern): Introduction to the Swiss National Cohort
- Mathias Lerch (Geneva): Mortality differentials by religious affiliation
- Dr Katharina Staehelin (Basel): Marital status, living arrangements and mortality: does the association vary by gender?
- Radoslav Panczak (Bern): The family drama: homicide/suicide events in Swiss households
- Dr Matthias Bopp (Zurich): Kissing a sleeping beauty? Linking MONICA and SNC
- Dr Kurt Schmidlin (Bern): How to deal with unlinked deaths? The example of cancer mortality
- Prof. Marcel Zwahlen (Bern): Parental education and risk of childhood cancer: generational effects?
- Dr David Fäh (Zurich): The physical environment and cardiovascular mortality

General discussion and brainstorming on future projects

Apéro

Registration

Please register until 25.6.2010 (free of charge):
www.swissnationalcohort.ch

Map for venue

http://www.bau.unibe.ch/downloads/vorlaeng_quart.png

^b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN